

Example Community LTSS Informational Websites

A key component of the NWD system, and a requirement of Balancing Incentive Program states, is an informational website about community LTSS options in the state. These websites provide broad access to standardized information about community LTSS and contact information for NWD entities where individuals can get more information and complete an initial screen.

Connecticut My Place CT

The screenshot shows the homepage of the My Place CT website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the logo "MY PLACE CT" and links for "WELCOME", "RESOURCES", "NEWS", "EVENTS", and "Careers and Training". Below this is a secondary navigation bar with links for "Determining Your Needs", "Finding Care and Support", "Affording Care and Support", and "Finding Housing and Transportation". The main content area features a large image of an elderly woman smiling at a young boy. To the right of the image is the headline "Now making choices about care and support just got easier." followed by a sub-headline: "We're the one source for everything about care and support in your community. My Place CT. You've come to the right place." Below the sub-headline are five colored buttons with white text and right-pointing chevrons: "What are your needs?", "How do I pre-screen for benefits?", "How do you find care and support?", "How do you pay?", and "What are your housing and transportation options?"

Maryland Access Point

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Maryland Access Point website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a "Select Language" dropdown, "Text Size:" options for "Small", "Medium", and "Large", and the logo "MARYLAND ACCESS POINT" with the tagline "YOUR LINK TO HEALTH & SUPPORT SERVICES". The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column has a "Explore your options" section with a red star icon, a photo of an elderly couple at a table, and a description: "Learn about community services like assisted living, meals, medication management, Medicare, Medicaid, caregiver support, transportation, personal care, healthy living, and dealing with issues like Alzheimer's, dementia, chronic diseases, and brain injury." Below the description is a red "Explore now" button. The right column has a "Search for resources" section with a red magnifying glass icon, a photo of a woman and a man at a table, and a description: "Our searchable directory can help you find home health, personal care, transportation, housing, home repairs, adult day care providers and lots of other services that can support you in your home." Below the description is a red "Search now" button. On the far right, there is a vertical sidebar with three sections: "Find a Personal Assistance Provider", "Create a Care Record" (with a sub-description: "Access and share your healthcare information in one location by creating a Care Record. Existing accounts log in here"), and "Give feedback" (with a sub-description: "We want to hear from you. Tell us what you think about the website.").
